Nodal Officer for the North-Eastern Students-Namita Paul

Regular interactions are held with North- Eastern students of the college to give them the opportunity to raise their concerns and interact with the nodal officer.

As part of the cultural events of the college, the students participate in the Annual Festival of the college ULLAS and organized a fashion show which introduced the audience to traditional costumes from the North-East.

In 2014, the college organized a grand Folk-Festival which featured the traditional dance forms of the North-East like Bihu from Assam. The students were also enthralled by the martial-arts drills of Thang-Ta from Manipur.

A group of students also embarked on the Gyanoday Express, on an enlightening expedition to the North- Eastern States of India. They were accompanied by faculty member Amit Soni from the Department of English.
