Braille stack in college library for visually challenged students and teachers

Greetings from the Guild For Service!

Every year the Guild For Service, a voluntary Development Organization in collaboration with War Widows Association and Gandhi Smriti and Darshan Samiti observes International Women's Day by holding "Interfaith Peace Prayer".

International Women's Day is celebrated to honor the dedication, achievements, and devotion of women and signifies their importance in our society.

Today, women belonging to different classes have come forward showcasing their talents/capabilities. Though we live in a society where the sex ratio continues to be a matter of concern but women are increasingly visible and successful in professional as well as public spheres.

I am pleased to inform you that this year we are organizing "Interfaith Peace Prayer" on Saturday, 7th March 2020 at 10:30 am at Kirti Mandap of Gandhi Smriti and Darshan Samiti, 5, Tees January Marg, New Delhi.

You have been an immense source of strength and courage to us in our endeavour to bring greater and everlasting peace, harmony and solidarity among the believers of all faiths and spiritual orientations. Today our nation needs solidarity, peace for our democratic institutions to continue we will observe one-minute silence for all those brave men & women who have sacrificed their lives for the nation.

We request you to come and give tribute to our brave martyrs and pray for Peace on this Day.

Guild of Service and myself look forward to your gracious presence.

A line of confirmation would be greatly appreciated.

With Regards,

Dr. V. Mohini Giri

Chairperson Founder Trustee
